

On your marks...

The London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games has appointed Letts Filofax to produce London 2012 branded merchandise.

Letts Filofax is developing a selection of diaries, notebooks and organisers, which will be packed full of engaging sporting content, facts and key dates, enabling the owner to keep their personal record of what is set to be a truly historic event!

The range will launch to corporate sales customers later this year - watch out for further details and get set for London 2012!
